ART IN THE COTSWOLDS

ART GALLERIES COTSWOLDS

ARTYSAN — COTSWOLDS — The art of country living

Our Gallery... Our Story

Don Bryson Gallery Owner

Inspirations: The English country home. 19th and early 20th Century art, folk art, Pre-Raphaelites, Ruralists and Neo-Romantics. Vernacular architecture and design, particularly William Morris, Sir Edwin Lutyens and the Arts and Crafts Movement. Period homes and wild gardens; interior decoration, property renovation and preservation; antique and vintage furniture, rugs and fabrics. Old sports cars and rusty Range Rovers; spaniels, Malbec and country life in the North Cotswolds.

Ruby Dewberry (2009 – 2024) Consultant, Canine Collections

Never forgotten. Our sweetest, gentlest, most loving and loyal furry companion. Sleep well, Roob.
Special Interests: Eating, sleeping, rolling, tummy tickles, swimming, chasing things, general spaniel stuff. A life well lived.

In 2015, we stepped through the door of our original premises at the Old Saddlery, Moreton-in-Marsh and knew exactly what we wanted to create. The concept of Artysan Cotswolds was born and continues to grow here in picturesque Stow-on-the-Wold. A unique and inviting gallery that feels more like a cosy Cotswold home. Warm, welcoming and distinctly unstuffy; brimming with contemporary and vintage country-inspired art, attractively presented alongside antique and vintage furniture and decorative objects.

Mixing old and new in an eclectic decorative scheme, we share a taste of our Cotswold country house style.
